

NOMINATION FORM

2014 Healthy San Joaquin Collaborative
Awards and Recognition

Let's Move! San Joaquin County

SUBMIT BY April 4, 2014

Your Contact Information

My Name is: _____

My e-mail is: _____

My Phone number is: _____

Nomination Category: _____ (Choose from list on bank)

Nominee's Information

The individual, group or organization I am nominating for the award is:

Nominee's Address: _____

City: _____ Zip Code: _____ Phone: _____

On a second page, please describe (print or type) your nominee's contribution to the community. Please limit your description to 2 pages. Answer the questions below.

- 1) Target Population:
- 2) Age Group:
- 3) Program Description:
- 4) Collaborators:
- 5) Impact:
- 6) Funding Support:
- 7) Why do you feel your nominee deserves this award?
- 8) Describe 1 or 2 specific success stories you can attribute to the efforts of this individual, group or organization?

Additional nomination forms are available by visiting <http://ucanr.org/hsjaward/form> or by calling Michelle Drummond 209-953-6100.

NOMINATION CATEGORIES

2014 Healthy San Joaquin Collaborative

Awards and Recognition

Let's Move! San Joaquin County

Individual A Community member who has been at the forefront of working with local leaders to create environmental and policy changes focused on improving access to healthy foods and improving access to physical activity resources.

Elected Official An elected official who has made a remarkable contribution towards obesity prevention and the advancement of healthier communities.

Youth Leaders An individual or group under the age of 18 who has demonstrated outstanding skills in organizing and promoting activities that support access to healthy foods and access to safe places to play.

School A person or school (this includes preschools, elementary, middle or high schools, after school programs) that has implemented innovative strategies in their food and physical activity environment to improve the health of students.

Restaurant/Grocery Store (Food Environment) A person or business that has made a significant impact in supporting and promoting the practice of improved access to healthy, affordable foods.

Health Care Champion A physician or Health Care Provider who has made a remarkable contribution towards obesity prevention and health promotion.

Media A media professional (this includes radio, television, newspaper, broadcast and any other media outlets) who has enhanced the understanding of the role that the environment and policy play in obesity prevention.

Community Based Organization An organization or group that has connected, facilitated, and demonstrated outstanding skills in helping to organize and promote active living and/or healthy eating.

Built Environment A person organization that has incorporated healthy eating and active living into community design to improve the places where people live.

Work site Wellness/Business An employer or business that has developed and implemented a culture and environment at their workplace that supports healthy eating and physical activity among its workers.

Children's Champion (0-5) A parent, individual or organization that has been a leader in improving access to healthy foods and/or physical activity resources for children 0-5.

Faith-based A faith-based group or individual that has connected, facilitated and demonstrated outstanding skills in helping to organize and promote active living and healthy eating.